The address of our website is: www.ecoshift.gr This belongs to the company PETROS PETROPOULOS SA

Personal information collected by the website

When the user visits this website and as long as he interacts with it, or makes use of the document issuing services, certain information may be collected, such as:

- Guest IP address
- Guest Browser Technical Identity
- Data entered in contact forms

It is pointed out that we keep your personal data for as long as is necessary in order to respond and fulfill our above-mentioned purposes. In principle, these data will be kept throughout the relationship between us for any reason. Therefore, after this, we delete them. Only exceptionally will we continue to process personal data, after the end of this, specifically:

1. For statistical purposes
2. Information that is necessary in order to respond to our statutory obligations
3. Data necessary for the exercise of our legal claims

Disclosure of Data to Third Parties

The recipient of your personal data is the company. We may process your information internally as part of our business to the relevant teams, including but not limited to our customer service team, legal team, financial management team and sales team and, where you have opted in to receive marketing messages, in the marketing teams.

In addition, we use third-party service providers and partners acting on our behalf (processors) for the above-mentioned processing purposes for the processing of personal data. The processors process your personal data in accordance with the instructions they receive from us and fully comply with this Privacy Notice, the principles of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and the applicable legislation. Πολιτική χρήσης Cookies

For the proper functioning of our websites and to ensure the best experience for visitors, we use very small information text files (cookies) which are used by browsers and allow the user's preferences to be recognized.

On our website we use cookies that enable the execution of basic functions of the site, measure user traffic and help website administrators to improve the content of the websites and cookies that help to display personalized content for the user.

The user can at any time modify the settings of the browser (browser) and manage the operation of cookies (objection to the use of cookies, deletion of cookies, etc.).

For more information please refer to our company's cookies policy, which is also posted on our website.

Content from other websites

Articles on this website may include embedded content (eg videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content from other websites behaves exactly as it would if the user were visiting that website directly.

The respective websites may collect data about you, use cookies, incorporate additional third-party tracking, and track your interaction with that embedded content, including tracking your interaction with the embedded content if you have an account and are logged in to specific website.

Traffic analysis services

We use traffic analysis services on our website, which record and store data about your visits in accordance with the applicable personal data protection terms they publish. We do not use these services to identify you in a unique way, but only to have a general data display regarding the degree and rate of visits of all visitors to our website. Traffic Analysis Services are third party data processors who maintain respective privacy policies in order to comply with the requirements of European legislation. For more information on the respective Traffic Analysis Services we use, you can contact us so that we can refer you to the relevant policies.

Data protection

Your data is protected by security systems that maintain strong mechanisms to prevent unauthorized access.

The website is monitored on a 24-hour basis by an intrusion prevention system while qualified personnel - certified in system security - take care of the protection of your data in order to prevent threats, inform the authorities and inform you in case of any breach.

Automated decision making and/or visitor profiling.

To protect our website, multiple security measures are used which make automated decisions about the nature of each visit in order to safeguard the programming code and the integrity of our database. These systems may not allow you to access our website. In case something like this happens, you can contact us so that we can advise on the matter and remove the block.

Rights of Personal Data Subjects

According to the personal data legislation you have the following rights:

1. Right of Access

Right to be informed about the processing of your Data by our company, right to access the Data and the information related to its processing, as well as the right to receive a copy of the Data. We reserve the right to refuse the satisfaction of this right, in accordance with the provisions of national legislation.

2. Right of Correction

Right to request the correction or completion of your Data if it is inaccurate or incomplete.

3. Right to Erasure

Right to request erasure of your Data. We will satisfy this right: a) If the Data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected.

a) If the Data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected.

b) If you exercise the right to object (see below).

c) If the Data was processed contrary to the applicable legal provisions.

d) If the Data must be deleted in order to comply with a legal obligation. We reserve the right to refuse the satisfaction of this right, if the processing of the Data is necessary for the fulfillment of our legal obligation, for the fulfillment of a duty performed in the public interest, for statistical purposes or for the establishment, exercise, support of our legal claims.

4. Right to restriction of processing

Right to mark the Data, with the aim of restricting its processing. This right is satisfied:

a) When you dispute the accuracy of the Data, for the time required for us to verify it.

b) When the processing is contrary to the applicable legal provisions and you request, instead of deletion, the restriction of the use of the Data.

c) When you exercise the right to object (see below), until we have verified whether the legitimate reasons for the processing prevail over your interests, rights and freedoms.

5. Right to Portability

Right to receive the Data in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format, as well as to request its transmission to you or to another person, who will carry out its processing.

6. Right to Object

You have the right to object:

a) In the processing of the Data carried out for the purposes of our legitimate interests or those of third parties. We reserve the right not to fulfill this right if there are compelling and legitimate reasons that override your interests, rights and freedoms or if this processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or support of our legal claims.

b) In the processing of Data carried out for commercial promotion purposes.

c) In the processing of Data for statistical purposes.

We reserve the right not to comply with this right if the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest.

7. Right to non-automated individual decision-making, including profiling

You have the right to object when a decision concerning you is based solely on automated processing, including profiling, and that decision produces legal effects or significantly affects you.

All the above rights are exercised free of charge. For any information regarding the company's personal data protection policy as well as for the exercise of your above-mentioned and described rights, you can contact the Personal Data Protection Officer of our company Mr. Vlachos Apostolos at the email dpo@prostasiadedomenon.gr or via telephone number 211 11 33583

In case of exercising one of the above rights, we will immediately take all possible action to satisfy your request, within a reasonable period and in any case no later than within one (1) month from the identification of your submitted request, informing you in writing of the full or partial satisfaction of your request, or the reasons that prevent the exercise of the relevant right.

At the same time, you can contact the Greek Personal Data Protection Authority via the following link: www.dpa.gr.
